

Fostering a diversified banking market through proportionality: An academic review

When: 7 March 2018

Where: Single Resolution Board's premises (Treurenberg 22, 1049 Brussels)

09.30: Registration

10.00: Welcome by Thomas Gstaedtner, President of the Supervisory Board,
European Banking Institute

10.10: Keynote speech by Elke Koenig, Chair, Single Resolution Board

10.30: Introductory remarks by Wim Mijs, CEO, European Banking Federation

Followed by Chris de Noose, Managing Director, European Savings and Retail Banking Group

10.45: Session 1 - Reflections around the concept of proportionality

Academic presentation & moderation of the session:

- Christos Hadjiemmanuil, member of the EBI Academic Board, University of Piraeus

Discussants:

- Fernando Restoy, Chair, Financial Stability Institute
- Markus Ferber, MEP, Vice Chair, Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs
- Gerhard Huemer, Director of Economic Policy, UEAPME
- Astrid Engel Thomas, Head of Legal Department, LOPI (Danish local and savings banks' association)

12.00: Coffee break

12.20: Session 2 – The principle of proportionality in regulation

Academic presentation & moderation of the session:

- Marco Lamandini, Vice-President of the EBI Academic Board, University of Bologna

Discussants:

- Sebastian Hrovatin, Deputy Head Bank Regulation & Supervision, DG FISMA, European Commission
- Peter Simon, MEP, Vice Chair, Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs
- Christian Ossig, Chief Executive, Association of German Banks

13.30: Networking lunch

14.15: Session 3 – The principle of proportionality in supervision

Academic presentation & moderation of the session:

- Bart Joosen, President of the EBI Academic Board, VU University Amsterdam

Discussants:

- Thomas Gstaedtner, Head of Division, Directorate General Micro-Prudential Supervision II, ECB
- Isabelle Vaillant, Director of regulation, European Banking Authority
- Angelique van Gerner, Head of Enterprise Risk, Triodos Bank N.V

15.30: Closing remarks by Enrico Leone, Chancellor, European Banking Institute