

EBI Financial Resolution Task Force

Terms of Reference

A. Compilation of databases – exchange of information

1. Compile a list of topics relating to the resolution of banks and other categories of financial firms (“Financial Resolution”), which are of interest to EBI academic, advisory and supporting members and which merit further research.
2. Facilitate the dissemination of draft working papers or contribute raw information and other early stage research among interested EBI members on individual topics relating to Financial Resolution with a view to gathering relevant data, sharing views, engaging in constructive debate and developing ideas. Conference calls may be organised to facilitate this exchange of information.

B. Promotion of research

Encourage EBI academic members and other scholars with an interest in Financial Resolution to lead research in the individual topics identified with a view to producing working papers for the EBI Working Paper Series and/or other publishing outlets.

C. Internal cooperation

Schedule a conference call, at least three times per year, in order to report to the members of the Financial Resolution Task Force on its work, including its research priorities and research outputs and facilitate the updating of the list of topics relating to Financial Resolution.

D. Cooperation with EU agencies and international fora

1. Establish a permanent cooperation with the Single Resolution Board (SRB) in order to discuss issues of common interest in the field of Financial Resolution in the European Union (EU) and submit research papers produced by the EBI academic members and other scholars specialised in the field of Financial Resolution. Organise an Annual Conference with the SRB on relevant issues open to a wider audience.
2. Establish a permanent cooperation with the European Banking Authority (EBA) and the European Central Bank (ECB) (and potentially the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA)) in order to discuss regulatory issues in the field of Financial Resolution in the EU.
3. Establish a cooperation with the Financial Stability Board (FSB) in order to discuss international regulatory developments in the field of Financial Resolution and their impact on the relevant EU regulatory framework.
4. Sustain a dialogue with these institutions about which data (either non-confidential or anonymised) could be made available for research purposes.

E. Broader dissemination of work – organisation of events

1. Encourage the organisation of workshops, seminars, and conferences to present the research produced to a wider audience.
2. Organise a panel at the EBI Annual Conference on a Financial Resolution topic.
