

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL BANKING & CAPITAL MARKET'S LAW

V EDITION ONLINE

11-15 July 2022

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Application deadline: 20 June 2022

Open to: PhD researchers, post-docs, junior faculty members, LLM students and young professionals

Venue: Online, WEBEX – EBI platform

Date: 11-15 July 2022

AIM AND PROGRAMME

The aim of the Summer School is to provide junior researchers (PhD researchers, post-docs, junior faculty members), LLM students and young professionals in banking and capital markets law with mentoring as well as with exposure to cutting-edge research in the field.

Selected participants will have the opportunity to present their own research projects (both completed and work-in-progress papers) and to discuss them with leading researchers. These presentations will constitute a key component of the Summer School: participants will be invited to give concise presentations of their work, which will be followed by an in-depth discussion of each contribution among participants and senior scholars. Each accepted research paper will be assigned to a discussant chosen among the senior academics involved in the Summer School.

Nevertheless, the presentation of papers is not compulsory for attending the Summer School.

Programme:

The programme consists of 5 working sessions (one per day) which will be organised as follows:

- 11 July: - Opening conference on: “Amidst pandemic and war, how to safeguard financial stability?”
- 12 July: - 1 keynote speech offered by senior academics and Q&A

- Presentation of participants' research works and discussion
- 13 July: - 1 keynote speech offered by senior academics and Q&A
- Presentation of participants' research works and discussion
- 14 July: - 1 keynote speech offered by senior academics and Q&A
- Presentation of participants' research works and discussion
- 15 July: - Closing conference on "The Green Transition in times of war and energy crisis"

The presentation of papers is not compulsory for attending the Summer School.

ELIGIBILITY

The Summer School is intended for:

- * PhD researchers, post-docs and junior faculty members conducting research in the field of Banking & Capital Markets Law, and young professionals;
- * LLM students in that field

In order to ensure a highly interactive environment, the number of participants presenting their papers will be limited to 15.

APPLICATION

Participants wishing to apply should send the following documents by email to edoardo.grossule@unicatt.it within 20 June 2022

- a short CV (pdf file)
- a motivation letter (pdf file)
- a research abstract (max 500 words) including a clearly defined topic, research questions and methodology
- application form (see the last page)

Applicants who are ready to submit their complete paper can send it together with the documents above. The submission of work-in-progress proposals that describe on-going and promising research are also welcomed, because they will benefit from an open discussion about the main conceptual and methodological problems related to the project. In any case, to allow a fruitful discussion, the complete paper or a detailed and well-developed research proposal must be sent no later than 20 June 2022. The detailed programme will be provided shortly after.

Those who do not wish to present their research can apply anyhow, submitting a short CV and a motivation letter only.

Priority will be given to participants from partner universities and EBI YRG members.

REGISTRATION FEE

Participants, apart from LLM students, will be asked to pay a registration fee of 130 euro (VAT included). LLM students will be asked to pay a registration fee of 80 euro (VAT included).

Admitted students will have to pay the registration fee within 10 days from the admission notice to the following bank account:
