Institute

The European academic joint venture for research on banking regulation

OVERVIEW

The European Banking Institute (hereafter also "EBI" or the "Institute") is an international center for banking studies resulting from the joint venture of highly regarded European academic institutions which have decided to share and coordinate their commitments and structure their research activities to provide the highest quality legal and economic studies in the fields of banking regulation and supervision in Europe.

The European Banking Institute's is a point of reference for banking regulation research in Europe and an instrument to facilitate the interactions between academia, supervisors, regulators and industry. The close relationship with both regulators, supervisors and the private sector is expected to guarantee an academic research production which is state of the art.

EBI has been selected by the European Banking Authority (EBA), the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) and the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) as academic partner and on 25 July 2023 a Memorandum of Understanding was signed to create a long-term collaboration among EBI and the ESAs.

The European Banking Institute is a no profit association "eingetragener Verein (e.V.)" under German laws based in Frankfurt am Main (Germany). The official language of the Institute is the English language, and all its activities are carried out in English.

Our Academic Programme and Publications

By its research, the EBI aims to contribute to and evaluate the quality of bank regulation, supervision and enforcement in the EU with a view to promoting financial stability, market efficiency and the equitable treatment of stakeholders.

Working Paper Series

The EBI Working Paper Series publishes research conducted within the EBI network and makes it immediately available to the academic community and all other interested parties. EBI Working Papers are included in the Social Science Research Network (SSRN) Legal Scholarship Network (LSN) Research Paper Series.

Discussion Paper Series

The EBI Discussion Paper Series capitalises on the expertise of researchers who comment on topical issues in banking supervision, for instance on announced or pending legislative or regulatory initiatives.

EBI Book Series

The EBI participates in the policy debate with eBooks which are the result of a collective effort of the Academic Board.

The Banking Union Cases and Union Courts

The EU Banking Cases Collection seeks to enhance the transparency of the cases pending before, or decided by, the Union Courts in the EU banking union and to offer a tool to academics and practitioners.

EBI Regulatory Report

The EBI Regulatory Report provides a weekly overview of the 'Pandemic Crisis-Related' Economic Policy and Financial Regulation Measures in Europe.

PROJECTS

Working Groups

The Working Groups are gathering academics, regulators and practitioners who engage in informal exchanges of views on banking regulation topics to promote dialogue and research in that area. They examine the full scope of relevant topics and highlight the current challenges to give impetus to innovative regulatory avenues and practical solutions. They also make benefit of academic publications and ongoing research from practical experience and insights.

Associate Researchers Group (ARG) and Young Researchers Group (YRG)

The ARG and YRG are inter-disciplinary platforms for mutual learning among senior (ARG) and early stage (YRG) researchers in banking law and policy. Under the wings of the EBI, the ARG and YRG conduct research, and promote debate and dialogue between researchers in relation to issues concerning regulation and supervision of financial institutions and financial markets.

Sponsored Research Programmes

The EBI collaborates with public and private institutions to promote multi-jurisdictional and interdisciplinary research projects in banking and financial regulation. The EBI Sponsored Research Programme focuses on projects which support state of the art researches/applied researches and develop topics discussed or relevant in current policy debate.
